 1. Detached Duty Application

GUIDELINES:

1. In general, Detached Duty will be restricted to Canada and the U.S.A.
2. The cost of fees for conferences, courses or workshops will be considered for authorization by the committee. The committee has the right to limit the number of teachers attending any one conference.
3. Conferences and workshops should be relevant to the applicant's current teaching assignment.
4. The amount of previous financial assistance received by the applicant through the Detached Duty fund within the last three years will be considered when a new application is being reviewed.
5. Accommodation, meals and transportation will only be considered for authorization for each day of a conference outside of the Lower Mainland.
 - a) Accommodation costs will be based on double occupancy where possible;
 - b) Food costs are based on the BCTF Food Allowance Schedule;
 - c) Transportation costs will be based on:
 - the most economic air fares
 - BCTF mileage allowance (carpooling encouraged)
6. The Detached Duty Committee will not authorize payment of the cost of textbooks, supplementary materials, memberships in professional or educational societies, or late registration fees.
7. For courses, conferences and/or workshops that fall in the vacation periods (Winter Break, Spring Break or summer), only registration costs will be allowed.
8. Courses taken for credit are not acceptable.
9. Funding is provided for teachers' professional development and not for individuals presenting at conferences or organizing for conferences.
10. No funding is available on the District Professional Development Day in February.
